History of the Langbein Family

by

Minnie Weidner Rosenberg

Marie C

Andreas and Marie Charlotte Brennecke Langbein arrived in Texas from Gross Wanzleben near Magdeburg, Prussia, on the ship "Friedrich Grosse." It sailed from Bremen to Galveston landing on 18 October 1853.

Family members sailing with Andreas and Marie C. Langbein were their five children: Marie, 9; Charlotte, 7; August, 4; Carl, 3; and Gustav, 7 months.

The Langbeins were taken by schooner to Indianola and from there by ox team to New Braunfels.

Andreas Langbein purchased land for their first home in America in 1854--three months after they arrived in Comal County.

One of the main events of the 1850's in the United States of America, the land which the Langbeins had chosen for their new home, was Texas being admitted to the Union. The young nation was expanding and growing as other states also joined the Union. An important world event was the laying of the Atlantic cable and the sending of the first cablegram. Direct communications between the nations of the world had been established.

The new decade of the 1860's brought significant years in the history of the Langbein family. These early pioneer years meant hard work for the family. All members helped to build the home on undeveloped land, clear the land to farm, and to build barns and fences to contain livestock. At first, brush was used to build the "fences," but later miles of rock fences were built by hauling rocks upon rocks. In spite of precautions, Indians often stole livestock and grain.

The Langbein family increased from five to eight children. Wilhelm, Robert, and Emma were born in Comal Co.

Marie, the eldest Langbein daughter, now 21 years of age, married Henry Kramm in 1865. She and Henry bought land and built a log home in the Pieper Settlement (later called Bulverde) also in Comal Co. Marie and Henry Kramm's two children, Hermine born in 1866 and Carl born in 1868, were the first of the second generation of Langbein descendants in Texas.

The second daughter of Andreas and Marie Charlotte Langbein, Charlotte, married Henry Voges, Jr. in 1868. They also purchased land in the Pieper Settlement. The two Langbein sisters remained close neighbors all their lives.

The 1860's brought sadness to the Langbein family and to the nation. After only 4 years of marriage, Henry Kramm, Marie Langbein's husband, was killed in an accident and their new-born infant died shortly thereafter.

A saddened nation had been divided during these years and fought a bitter Civil War. Deep additional sorrow befell the nation through the assassination of its president, Abraham Lincoln.

In the 1870's Andreas and Marie Langbein moved to Sisterdale. They began buying land in Kendall County and soon became large land owners.

In due time each of the Langbein children married and purchased land from their parents.

The progressive decade of the 1870's brought important developments to the nation which were to affect the lives of all people. The typewriter was introduced; the telephone was patented; the phonograph was invented; and the electric light bulb was perfected.

The 1880's mark the first of the third generation of Langbein descendants. Carl Bauer was born in 1882. The second generation continued to grow.

The settlers developed a life style to suit their needs. It was hard work with little time for relaxation or play; but with determination and trust in God, the Langbein family became large land owners and respected civic-minded citizens.

Social events included the Schuetzenvereine (Shooting Clubs). The picture of the Schuetzenverein on the following page includes four Langbeins, all seated on the front row. Left is Robert with Carl next to him. The second from the far right is Gustav with August next to him, holding the gun.

In addition to the Schuetzenverein, other social events included Gesangvereine (Singing Clubs). The singing of German folksongs was a form of entertainment at family gatherings on holidays and birthdays.

Mr. Fritz Fischer, who is related to the Langboins through marriage, composed the music and wrote the lyrics for the song, "Sisterdale," printed below:

Song - Sisterdale

1st Kennst du das Thal von Hügeln sanft umschlossen,
In dessen Grundzweier klare Bächlein ziehn -
Um säumt von hohen flüsternden Zypressen,
In deren Aesten dunkle Trauben glühn.

Chorus Ich kenn es wohl ich kenn es wohl.

Es ist mein Heimaths Thal.

Es ist mein liebes teures Sisterdale.

2nd Kennst du die Höhen wo glatte Rinder grasen,
Wo muntere Rösslein auf der Weide gehn.
Wo prächtige Eichen schmücken grünen Rasen.
Wo laue Lüfte durch die Berge ziehn.

Chorus -

3d. Kennst du das Thal wo muntere Weisen klingen, Aus jedem Haus in Feld und Flur und Wald.
Wo frische Stimmen frohe Lieder singen.
Das Laut das Echo tönt es wieder halt.

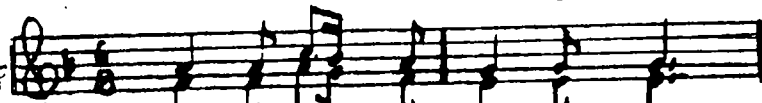

Chorus

4- Kennst du das Thal wo Lieb und Eintracht wohnet,
Wo hoch die Ehre gilt und Sittehmkeit.
Wo Freudi Fleis und Liebe tugent Lohnet
Das Wort das Heilig ist wie Schwur und Eid.

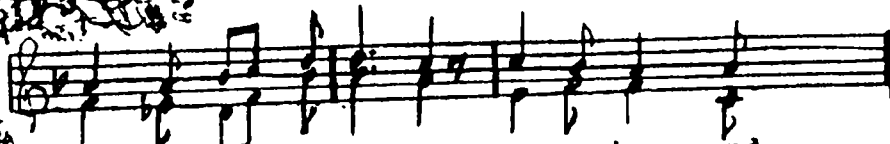

The following are popular folksongs of the times. They are printed with permission of Curt E. Schmidt from his book, "Oma and Opa."

Er le-be hoch, er le-be hoch, er le-be hoch, er le-be hoch hoch, hoch hoch er le-be hoch er le-be hoch hoch er le-be hoch!

er le-be hoch,

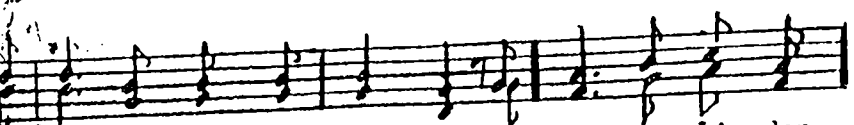

This song is sung as a tribute or a salute to someone. At birthday parties the song is sung to toast the one whose birthday is being observed. Hoch means high in English, but in the song it is more like Hail! Salud! or Vival First all the cups are filled, and then with each Hoch the mug is raised high. Generally there were members of the Gesangverein in the group. They sang in four parts.

Denkschrift
des
49. Sängertages
des
Texanischen
Gebirgs-Sängerbundes
zur
Jahrhundert-Feier
des Staates Texas

In 1884 sadness came for the entire family when the immigrant, Anna Marie C. Brennecke Langbein died.

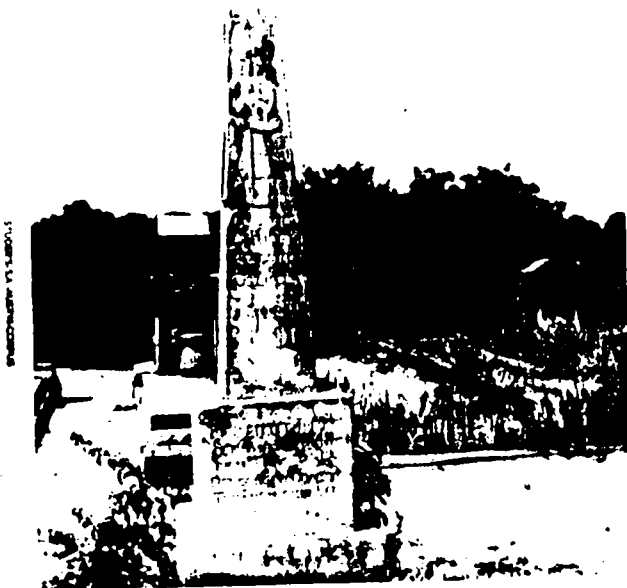

The 1880's went down in history as a period of disastrous storms in Texas, including long, severely cold blizzards and the great Gulf storm of 1886 which completely destroyed the seaport of Indianola. This decade produced France's symbolic gift of freedom to the United States, the Statue of Liberty.

The 1890's ran their course and marked the end of the 18th century. America and Texas were enjoying prosperity, and the decade was spoken of as the "Gay Nineties." It was a time which indicated great promises for the future, with wider use of the telephone and electricity. Trains traveled across the country and steam ships journeyed across the seas.

Andreas Langbein died on 14 December 1900. The Langbein family had become self-sufficient and secure in the young State of Texas. They were established on farms and ranches. They added stature, character, and solidity to the community.

It is with sincere pride and gratitude that I, Minnie Weidner Rosenberg, a descendent, place red roses on their graves in thankfulness that they had the desire, strength and courage to immigrate to Texas, the land where their children could have greater opportunities.

Note: According to family tradition, Charlotte was called Marie Charlotte and her tombstone has Marie C but her christening record from the Lutheran Parish in Wanglitz, Germany has her named only as Charlotte Elisabeth Brennecke. Her mother was named Maria.

ANDREAS LANGBEIN

Andreas Langbein arrived from Germany on the ship, "Friedrich Grosse." It sailed from Bremen to Galveston, landing in Galveston on 18 Oct 1853.

Family members sailing with Andreas were his wife, Marie Charlotte Brennecke Langbein, and five children born in Gross Wantzleben, near Madgeburg, Prussia. The children were Marie, 9; Charlotte, 7; August, 4; Carl 3; and Gustav, 7 months.

The Langbeins were taken by schooner to Indianola and from there journeyed to New Braunfels. Since it was eight years after the first immigrants landed, the road to New Braunfels was in better condition and traveled more, so the trip was not as arduous as it had been for the first settlers.

Deed records in Comal County Court House show that Andreas Langbein bought 209 acres on 11 Jan 1854 from Carl H. Albrecht and wife. (The original grantee were A. H. Jones and M. Morena.) Andreas Langbein paid $800 cash for the acreage which was situated on the southwest side of the Guadalupe river about 20 miles above New Braunfels. Book D. page 115.

The Comal County records show he sold the same land to Friedrich Bartels on 8 Nov 1865. According to Book H, page 171, Mr. Bartels signed four promisory notes for a total amount of $1200 for the land. One $300 note was payable on 1 Dec. 1866, with a $300 note being due each 1 Dec. until 1869. All notes had 8% interest payable from 1 Dec 1865.

Andreas Langbein bought land in Kendall County in 1870. He made his home in Sisterdale and became a large land owner and rancher.

The first of his purchases in Kendall County are recorded below: All are recorded in Volume 2.

Heinrich and Marie Langbein Kramm with Hermine

HEINRICH KRAMM

Heinrich Kramm, son of Heinrich Christian Kramm and Anna Sophie Thies Kramm married Marie Langbein on 26 June 1865.

Heinrich and Marie purchased land of their own. Photo-stated copy of Comal County Deeds Record states land was deeded by Joseph Kabelmacher to Heinrich Kramm. It is dated July 22, 1868, in Book II, pages 426, 427.

Heinrich and Marie worked hard with a true pioneer spirit. The land had to be cleared using only an ax and was then plowed with an oxen drawn hand plow. Fences were built by hauling and piling rock upon rock. Water for all uses had to be hauled out of the Cibolo. Cisterns for water were dug by hand.

Heinrich and Marie Langbein Kramm established their home on the east or Comal County side of Cibolo Creek across the creek from where Heinrich's mother and sister's homes were located. A comfortable log house with cypréss shingle roof and wide cypréss flooring was built. The cypréss had to be brought 12 miles from where the cypréss trees grew along the Guadalupe River.

Heinrich and Marie Kramm were blessed with two children, Hermine and Carl. They had only a short marriage when, at the age of 31, Heinrich died from injuries he received when a tree he was cutting down fell on him. He is buried in the Leasch Cemetery, Bulverde, Bexar County, Texas.

An infant who was born two weeks after its father's death, is buried in the same grave as its father.

Henry Voges, Jr., and Marie Langbein Kramm owned lands adjoining each other. The widow Marie Langbein Kramm agreed to an exchange of land with Heinrich Voges, Jr. After the exchange, her land was located about a mile away from the Cibolo on the east side of Voges. This is recorded Feb. 25, 1887 in Vol. M, page 632 of the Comal Co. records.

THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE

"Aye, there it is, one generation comes, another goes and mingles with the dust and thus we come and go, come and go, each for a little moment filling up some little place and thus we disappear in quick succession, and it shall be so till time in one vast moment, be swallowed up."

PREFACE

The following records of the Langbein family were obtained in its present form by Minnie Weidner Rosenberg, who began research in 1966.

She sincerely appreciated the assistance of members of the Langbein, Kramm, Weidner, and Voges families. Mrs. Rosenberg also obtained information by visiting cemeteries, from studying records in Comal and Kendall County Courthouses, the New Braunfels Herald, "A New Land Beckoned" by Chester William and Ethel Hander Geue, "John O. Meusebach" by Irene Marshall King, "The History of the German Settlements in Texas" by Rudolph Leopold Bieseie, "Oma & Opa, German-Texas Pioneers" by Curt E. Schmidt, and "The History of New Braunfels and Comal County 1844-1846" by Oscar Haas. Personal interviews with Mr. Haas, now deceased, were also conducted. Miscellaneous other resources were also used.

All copyright permission has been granted.

Pictures have been included where possible. It is unfortunate that more pictures were not available. Much appreciation goes to those who made their pictures available for reproduction.

Special thanks and appreciation go to Nadine Rosenberg Henneke, daughter of Minnie Weidner Rosenberg, whose interest and encouragement on this family history helped so much. Nadine did the calligraphy on the cover and all the typing of this family history.

FRIEDRICH LEBRECHT WEIDNER

Marie Langbein Kramm's second husband was Friedrich "Wilhelm" Weidner.

Wilhelm Weidner's father was Friedrich Lebrecht Weidner.

Friedrich Lebrecht Weidner was from Oberlichtenau near Pulnitz, Saxony, Germany. He came to America on the ship "Galliot Concordia" which sailed from Bremen to Galveston. The trip took 75 days, arriving in Galveston on 25 Nov 1854.

Records from the Comal County Courthouse show that Friedrich Weidner was granted from the state of Texas Patent No. 237, Vol. 16 on 13 Feb 1863, 160 acres of Survey #562. This was located 17 miles northwest of New Braunfels on the waters of the Guadalupe River. (Book G, Page 550). This grant was signed by R. Lubbock, governor of the State of Texas and S. Crosby, the commissioner of the land office. The chain carriers for the surveyors were Leberecht Weidner and Wilhelm Weidner.

The book, "Indian Wars and Texas Pioneers", contains a chapter written by Wilhelm Weidner about himself and his father:

WILHELM WEIDNER

Bulverde

Quoted from "Indian Wars and Texas Pioneers" by John Henry Brown

"is one of the substantial farmers of the mountain district of Comal County. His father, Frederick Weidner came to Texas in 1854 from Saxony, Germany, where he was born, reared and learned the trade of a weaver of linen fabrics. After coming to Texas he engaged in farming on rented land near New Braunfels until 1858 and then purchased land-160 acres, a portion of the present home of his son, Charles Weidner. Here the family grew up.

"Wilhelm Weidner the subject of this notice had already attained manhood when his parents came to Texas.

"The names of the children of Frederick Weidner (all born in Germany except Joseph) who was born in New Braunfels) are as follows: Wilhelm, Christina, Leberecht, Adolf, Charles, Emilie, Auguste, and Joseph. Auguste died at twelve years of age in 1855.

"Frederick Weidner was twice married. William, Christian, Leberecht, and Adolf are by his first wife whose maiden name was Christina Waner. She died in Germany in 1848. His second wife was Miss Frederica Lombatch.

"Wilhelm was born in Saxony April 20, 1834, and was eighteen years of age when he came to Texas with his father in 1854. After coming to Texas he worked as a laborer on farms for a time, later went to San Antonio, where he worked with Hermann Kampmann. He served as a soldier in Captain Kampmann's Company from the fall of 1861 to 1865 during the war between the States, spending one year in La Grange in a hat factory established by the Confederate States government. After the war he located in New Braunfels and manufactured hats for a year, and later formed a partnership with three others, for the manufacture of sash doors and blinds, a connection which lasted three years.

"Mr. Weidner located on his present farm in 1871. It now consists of 400 acres of good farming and good grazing land. He has a fine home and an interesting family. He has been for years trustee of the public free schools and was the first county commissioner of Comal County, Precint No. 3.

"Mr. Weidner has been twice married. His first wife was Cora Reuder, to whom he was married in January 1868. She died in November of that year leaving him a child, Hermann Weidner as a pledge of her affection. He married his second wife, Mrs. Marie Kramm, widow of Henry Kramm and a daughter of Andreas Langbein of Sisterdale in Kendall County, 1871. By this union five children have been born. Clara (Mrs. Louis Krause), Natalie (Mrs. Ernest Herbst), Alvine, (Mrs. John Classen), Gustav married Miss Hulda Pfeuffer and Bertha (Mrs. Adolf Serold). Three children died as infants."

WILHELM WEIDNER's nationalization papers are on record in Comal County, New Braunfels, TX, dated 16 Aug 1867.

Wilhelm Weidner's first marriage to Miss Cora Steffens was solemnized on 12 Jan 1868 by Pastor August Schuchard at the First Protestant Church in New Braunfels, TX. The witnesses were Nicolaus Holz and Lebericht Weidner.

MARIE LANGBEIN KRAMM and WILHELM WEIDNER

Marie Langbein Kramm married Wilhelm Weidner on 15 Oct 1871. The witnesses were H. Kabelmacher and A. Pieper. Chas. Ohlrich, Justice of Peace Precinct #3, Comal Co., performed the vows. Marie's two children, Hermine Kramm and Carl Kramm, were 5 and 3 years of age.

Wilhelm Weidner had come to Texas in 1854 with his father, Friedrich Lebrécht Weidner, and stepmother Friedricke nee Lonatsch or Lommatsch Weidner when he was 18 years of age on the ship "Galliot Concordia."

Young Hermann Weidner was 3 years of age when his father married Marie Langbein Kramm.

At first Marie and Wilhelm lived in the log house on the banks of the Cibolo built by Heinrich Kramm, Marie's first husband. In 1875 a two-story dressed rock house was constructed on the land she owned on the east side of Heinrich Voges. This new house was designed after the home of the Weidner family in Oberlichtenau, Saxony. The rock was hauled to the site from a quarry in the Cibolo Creek. According to legend, professional stone masons constructed the house.

The downstairs of the new house comprised two large rooms with a stairway leading to the second floor. The second floor which was not divided up into smaller rooms until later, also contained a stairway which led up to the attic. All walls, which were 18 inches thick, were plastered with caliche and straw, as was the custom in this area. All windows had outside wooden blinds. The roof was of cypress shingles and the floors in every room were of wide cypress boards.

The log house was moved from the Cibolo Creek location and was incorporated with the rock house. The log house formed the kitchen, dining room, and bedroom. Its porch formed an entrance hall. The attic of the log house was used for sleeping quarters. An outside stairway led to a door in the north end of this attic for access to the sleeping quarters.

At first water was hauled from the Cibolo. Then cisterns were dug to catch rain water. Later wells were drilled and earthen water tanks dug.

Rock fences around the acreage were built as well as rock fences for corrals.

Comal County deeds records show in Vol. V, page 375, that William Weidner bought land from Carl Kramm and Hermine Kramm Bauer, the only surviving children of Heinrich Kramm and Marie on 13 Aug 1890.

OTHER MARRIAGES

Friedrich "Wilhelm" Weidner wife #2:
Marie Langbein Kramm

Wilhelm Weidner served as one of the first trustees of the Herrera school community when it was organized in 1889 in Bulverde. In 1880 the Pieper Settlement had been renamed "Bulverde" after the surveyor, Luciano Bulverde.

Wilhelm Weidner was the first county commissioner of Comal County, Precinct No. 3.

Wilhelm Weidner was a member of the Voges Valley Schutzenverein (Shooting Club) and the Farmerverein.

My grandfather, Wilhelm Weidner, died on 21 Jan 1908 and is buried on the homestead in Bulverde. I never knew my grandfather, but he must have been a proud and wonderful person from the heritage reflected in his home and family.

MARIE LANGBEIN KRAMM WEIDNER

My grandmother, Marie Langbein Kramm Weidner, was affectionately called "Grossie" which is short for "Grossmutter" (Grandmother.) She was small and chubby. Her hair was parted in the center with braids pinned around the back of her head. She wore two yellow gold identical wedding bands and gold loop earrings. Her Sunday dress was a dark silk, with velvet and lace trim, and pretty buttons. The petticoats were taffeta and made a shwissy sound when she walked. A favorite dress for at home was a black and white tiny-checked gingham, a pretty apron, and a red bandana handkerchief tied around her neck or over her head.

She had an imaginable and interesting mind. On one of my mid-morning visits to her house, I remember her asking me to check the woodpecker who was pecking away on a limb of a tree in front of her house. She cheerfully said, "He is dressed just as I am, with his black and white checked feathers, white breast, and red head." With her red bandana carefully tied over her head, she was right--the woodpecker and she were dressed alike.

Grossie was an excellent cook, who baked delicious sourdough bread and coffee cake. The coffee cake was her favorite sweet. She roasted coffee beans to make the coffee fresh in a coffee grinder each time before coffee was cooked with water in a pot--This was before percolators and drip coffee were known.

Grossie loved flowers and grew many varieties. She was especially fond of her Christmas Lobster. A special flower bed always held pansies, the tiny, monkey-faced kind. Another bed always had red carnations. The flower beds were designed into various shapes and sizes with walking trails between. Borders for the beds were made from discarded thick glass bottles. All of us children spent many hours helping to water and weed and spade the beds. She had a wooden yoke which fitted over her shoulders; on each side was hung a bucket of water to carry the water where it was needed. It was very carefully dipped out of the buckets with a very long-handled large size tin cup. Water was always in short supply and never a drop was wasted.

On the south side of her neat rock home, my father, Gustav Weidner, built her a cement-lined celler in which to winter her many pot plants. The roof was balanced on weights so it could easily be raised to let in the warm sun or lowered for protection against a freeze. Grossie's love and tender care for flowers taught us to also love and appreciate them.

Grossie had a bar of German sweet chocolate in a certain drawer in the kitchen. She would give us children one square, as a special treat, when we did something nice for her such as bringing in drinking water, mail, milk, or firewood. We always did this when the weather was cold or rainy. My brother, Arthur Weidner, spaded her garden. If he did a very good job, he received 25¢ for the work. We were taught, though, to do nice things, never expecting rewards, and since Grossie was nice to us, we enjoyed being nice to her.

Grossie's kind nature was apparent in her treating the sick. She had learned many home remedies from her sister-in-law, Johanna Kramm Pieper. Many of these cures were passed on to my mother, Hulda Pfeuffer Weidner. Various herbs and roots were prepared for medicine and for body-strengthening tonics as well as salves for sores and infections. Cold packs were often used. These were strips of linen cloth dipped in water and wrapped around the affected part of the body. These cloths were then wrapped again with woolen cloths. A whole body pack was given using a wet sheet and covering the ill with blankets. The theory was that the ensuing perspiration would draw the poison from the body--and it usually worked. The good old sitz bath was used and always helped. Mustard poultices were a cure for chest colds and pneumonia.

Additional remedies included: "Tausend-gildenkraut," a weed with pink flowers which was gathered in the spring and then hung in bunches to dry. A tea was made from this. Camomile, another tea, was made from weeds, also, and was a good remedy for practically any ailment. Honey with lemon added helped a sore throat. Honey was also used to prevent infection when placed on a cut. These and other remedies must have worked, for we never came down with colds or the flu.

Grossie was always interested in world news. Our family shared the daily newspaper with her. She subscribed to two weekly German newspapers and also to the "Hausfrau," a monthly magazine which was read from cover to cover.

Grossie had a good supply of German poetry books which were read to me over and over as a small child. I loved her for taking the time to read to me and I soon knew every line in those books by memory.

Grossie was always busy; her hands were never idle. She had a spinning wheel which I remember watching her use. Most of her spare time was spent knitting. She could knit and read the newspaper or magazine at the same time. Her grandchildren were the recipients of her knitted long, black stockings. They were of the best quality. I don't remember owning any other stockings when growing up. Everybody wore long, black stockings then, since that was the style.

My father kept a horse named "Duke" and a buggy for grandmother to visit her relatives and many friends in the community. Upon hearing of the birth of a child, Grossie often rode there in her buggy and suggested a name for the newborn. Usually her suggestions were gladly taken.

Grossie's children and their families always visited on Christmas and on her birthday in June. The uncles usually stayed at our house. I remember the thick cigar smoke all over the house and Mama airing it out after they were gone. I loved those occasions because I could play with my cousins, and we always had lots of fun.

Grossie died at the home of her daughter, Natalie Herbst, in New Braunfels in 1924 at the age of 80 years. I was eleven and remember how I missed her. To have spent my early years near such a loving and kind grandparent enriched my life a hundred-fold. It gave to me, the youngest of four children, a certain security and recognition which I shall never forget.

Herman and Elise Weidner reared their family on a farm they owned in Bulverde, Bexar Co., TX.

Herman was a member of the Vogels Valley Shooting Club. He usually brought home a first prize for his marksmanship.

Elise was an able assistant to her husband on the farm and a very good homemaker. I remember delicious Sunday dinners and beautiful, delicious cakes and coffee in the afternoon. Elise was also talented in crocheting and sewing.

I remember one visit in particular to my Aunt Elise and Uncle Herman which cousin Gertrude and I were too small to play with the older sisters. The older sisters (I had 2 and Gertrude had 3) shut the door, and we were not permitted in the room. Much later they opened the door. We saw they had cooked food on a children's size large wood range. They had had so much fun. However, Gertrude and I had enjoyed the afternoon anyhow by playing in the huge double swing on the front porch with her dolls.

Aunt Natalia and Uncle Ernst often visited Grandmother Weidner (Marie Langbein Kramm Weidner) who lived in her own house on the homestead where I grew up. Aunt Natalia enjoyed bringing Grandmother nice silk Sunday dresses. After the death of Grandmother Weidner, they continued to celebrate the holidays with my parents. She said that it was like coming home.

Uncle Ernst, Aunt Natalia, and my father (Gustav Weidner) passed away the same year--in 1943. I will always remember the three empty chairs that Christmas and the great strength my mother displayed to make it a day of celebration just as all our past Christmases had been.

Ernst and Natalia Herbst took into their home six-month-old Etelka Bartels, the child of a neighbor, Otto Bartels, whose wife had died. They tenderly cared for and educated her. Etelka married Henry Rompel. They now live on the Herbst ranch.

John was the son of John Hubert and Helena Schwirth Classen who immigrated from Brachelen near Aachen, Reine, Prussia to San Antonio, TX via the ship "Iris" in 1857. John Hubert Classen b 18 Sept 1832 d 10 June 1917. Helena Schwirth Classen b 18 Apr 1830. d Oct 1873. Helena is burried in the Zuehl Cemetery. Second marriage of John Hubert Classen to Sophie Muetzel. Alwine and John George Classen are buried in Sunset Memorial Park at San Antonio, TX.

Alwine Weidner and John Classen lived in Wetmore, Bexar Co., TX on a large ranch established by his father. This locality was known as the Redlands.

John Classen raised registered polled (hornless) Hereford cattle, horses, polled registered Angora goats, and sheep.

Alwine and John owned a beautiful home with a fenced front yard containing lovely landscaped flower gardens. The flower beds were in various designs. In the center, I remember, was a star. Thick glass bottles formed the curbing around the flower beds and a path was between each bed. For winter protection from the cold, Aunt Alwine had an underground glass-covered hot house. Many varieties of pot plants were enjoyed there. Aunt Alwine always took a large bouquet of flowers wherever she went. Her green thumb was well-known throughout the community.

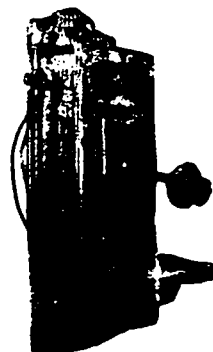

The plentiful flowers attracted many beautiful butterflies to the garden. Aunt Alwine captured butterflies and mounted them in two very large shadowbox frames which hung in her parlor.

The boys had a Shetland pony and a pony cart. A ride in the cart was enjoyed on some of our special visits. They had a player piano which was also very special and enjoyed very much.

When my daughter, Nadine Rosenberg, was small, she loved to visit Aunt Alwine, especially to enjoy the peacocks she had around the house. Nadine referred to Aunt Alwine as Tanta Pfauhahn.

Gustav and Hulda Pfeuffer-Weidner

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, U.S.A. 1907

4. Gustav Weidner. (My Father) b 4 June 1878. d 24 Mar 1943. m Hulda Pfeuffer on 19 Nov 1904. Hulda b 7 Dec 1883. d 6 Sept 1964. Hulda was daughter of Hermann and Mina Fuhrman Pfeuffer of the Spring Branch Community, Comal Co., TX.

The Pfeuffer and Fuhrman families immigrated from Wurzburg, Bavaria, Ellfels, Nassau and Baden, Germany. They were among the first settlers in New Braunfels, TX.

Gustav and Hulda bought the homestead from his parents. Wilhelm and Marie then built a retirement home on the same place near the original house. The homestead is presently occupied by Sidney and Shelley Weidner, the fourth generation of Weidner families, and is bearing the Official Texas Historical Marker.

Gustav spent his entire life on the place. He always took pride in his home, the ranch, and farm. The place was always kept in good repair.

Gustav was interested in community and civic development. He was elected judge for many years in Precinct #3, Comal Co. He was a member of the Herrera School trustee board as long as he had children attending the school. He selected teachers with a careful investigation. The teachers always were required to teach a course in German, because Bulverde was a German community.

Gustav belonged to the Bulverde singing club named Fortschritt. My father took violin lessons from his good friend, Alfred Toepperwein. Father rode there on horseback. My memories of papa practicing his violin were relived in 1964 when, while sailing down the Rhine river in Germany on a trip to Europe, our ship passed the mountain, Lorelei. Over the loud speaker system the music of the piece, "Lorelei" was played. Tears came to my eyes remembering papa playing it on his violin at home.

Father was also a member of the Vogels Valley Shooting Club and loved it. Their social was monthly on a Sunday afternoon so that wife and children could attend, too--that was gemuetlichkeit. The prize shoots once a year were a big event since other club members from surrounding clubs were invited for the competition. Papa usually won a prize for his marksmanship.

Gustav belonged to the German Farmer Verien, which is a mutual farmer insurance, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge No. 216 in San Antonio.

Hulda Weidner, my mother, was a talented homemaker, always well-organized in her endeavors. She raised several hundred white leghorn chicks every year. She sold several cases of eggs and pounds of fresh home-made butter every week. She had a large vegetable garden, canning vegetables and various kinds of fruit from the orchard every season.

My mother was very artistic, talented in crocheting. She crocheted bedspreads, tablecloths, and afghans for her children and grandchildren. An excellent seamstress, she sewed all our clothes by patterns she designed herself.

Mother and father were devoted, forgiving, kind, and in harmony with each other.

Alice attended the first year of school at the Green Hill School. She rode a donkey to school each day. She remembers vividly that the donkey was afraid of water. On days when the Cibolo Creek was up with water, her father would have to ride a horse to lead the donkey across the water.

Alice enjoyed going to the Kappelmacher Brothers Grocery Store in Bulverde with her grandmother (Marie Langbein Kramm Weidner) in grandmother's buggy to buy groceries. After her grandmother passed away, Alice remembers hauling buckets of water to the family cemetery to water the flowers on her grave.

Alice and Julius Bremer operated the general merchandise store and dance hall at Smithsons Valley. At first they were in partnership with his sister and brother-in-law, Martha and Reinhardt Fischer. Later Alice and Julius continued the operation of the store alone in addition to ranching. Julius was Postmaster for the Smithsons Valley post office, and Alice was the assistant Postmaster.

Alice continues in the ranching business. She is active in home extension clubs as well as the Herman Sons. Her hobbies include crocheting and quilting.

Melitta d 17 Mar. 1986 Elmer d 23 Sept. 1989

Melitta remembers riding with her sister Alice on a donkey to school the first year. Melitta was under age, but needed to make a school of eight pupils. She was the only one in her class through the fourth grade. At the Herrera school the pupils hauled water in a bucket, drank out of a tin cup, and helped to start the fire in the large wood heater. After the first year, she walked the 1½ miles to school and 1½ miles back each day. After attending New Braunfels High School, she helped with the work at home on the ranch. Melitta loved to shoot squirrels and doves, to get mail on horseback, and to walk or visit with her grandmother (Marie Langbein Kramm Weidner) while visiting friends in her horse and buggy.

Melitta's special interests are bowling, dressmaking, quilting, gardening, and needle arts. In 1958 the Bietel Memorial Lutheran Church Women awarded her with a life membership pin. Melitta has been an election judge or clerk for 25 years in Bexar Co.

Elmer still has scars on his chest caused when a too-hot mustard plaster was placed on it by his doctor when he had diphtheria at 18 months of age. All his skin came off to expose his ribs. That night the doctor left to go home and when he returned the next day, he asked, "When did he die?" Elmer lived because of the tender care given him by his mother who rocked him most of the time during the crises. She had no time to even undress for three weeks because she had just given birth to Elmer's younger brother.

Elmer attended Salado Valley School for 7 years. His father died when Elmer was 20 years old so Elmer continued to help his mother on the farm and worked in a cotton gin.

After his marriage to Melitta, Elmer carpentered and then bought the Oak Grove General Merchandise and Liquor Store, which they operated together. They have acquired numerous properties not only in San Antonio, but also near Luling. In 1973 the Chamber of Commerce of San Antonio presented Elmer with the Community Service to Agriculture award.

Elmer was an election presiding officer before he was elected a director to the Alamo Soil and Water Association.

Elmer's special interests include grafting and growing pecan trees and playing Skat.

Melitta and Elmer live on their ranch in Wetmore.

Bertha and Adolph Serold raised their family on their farm and ranch located in Bulverde, Bexar Co., TX. When visiting my aunt, uncle, and cousins, I remember admiring that lovely, peaceful view in front of their house.

After retirement from farm and ranch, Adolph and Bertha built a home in San Antonio near their son, Walter, where Adolph engaged in real estate.

They celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at an Open House in the Community Hall in their former home of Bulverde.

Bertha Serold continued to live in this home in San Antonio until she passed away in 1976. At her funeral the beautiful parable on "Motherhood" by Temple Bailey was presented by her minister. It is enclosed on the following page.

Adolph Serold's father was Christian Serold. b 3 Aug 1836 in King, Prussia. Christian Serold came to America with his uncle, landing in New York in 1849. They settled in Virginia where Christian Serold worked for his uncle until he joined the Confederate Army. He served in the Confederate Infantry for three years and was discharged at Junction, Tx.

The family history of the Serold family was compiled by Erna Serold King. It follows the parable on Motherhood.

TEMPLE BAILEY'S PARABLE ON MOTHERHOOD

The young mother set her foot on the path of life. "Is the way long?" she asked. And her guide said, "Yes, and the way is hard. And you will be old before you reach the end of it. But the end will be better than the beginning." But the young mother was happy and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So she played with her children and gathered flowers for them along the way and bathed with them in the clear streams; and the sun shone on them and life was good, and the young mother cried, "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this."

Then night came, and storm, and the path was dark and the children shook with fear and cold, and the mother drew them close and covered them with her mantle and the children said, "O mother, we are not afraid, for you are near, and no harm can come" and the mother said, "This is better than the brightness of day, for I have taught my children courage."

And the morning came, and there was a hill ahead and the children climbed and grew weary and the mother was weary, but at all times she said to the children, "A little patience and we are there." So the children climbed and when they reached the top, they said, "We could not have done it without you, mother." And the mother, when she lay down that night, looked up at the stars and said, "This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned fortitude in the face of hardness. Yesterday I gave them courage, today I have given them strength."

And the next day came strange clouds which darkened the earth--clouds of war and hate and evil--and the children groped and stumbled and the mother said, "Look up. Lift your eyes to the light." And the children looked and saw above the clouds an Everlasting Glory and it guided them and brought them beyond the darkness. And that night the mother said, "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children God."

And the days went on, and the weeks and the months and the years, and the mother grew old, and she was little and bent. But her children were tall and strong and walked with courage. And when the way was rough they lifted her, for she was as light as a feather; and at last they came to a hill, and beyond the hill they could see a shining road and golden gates flung wide.

And the mother said, "I have reached the end of my journey. And now I know that the end is better than the beginning, for my children can walk alone, and their children after them."

And the children said, "You will always walk with us, Mother, even when you have gone through the gates."

And they stood and watched her as she went on alone and the gates closed after her. And they said, "We cannot see her, but she is with us still. A mother like ours is more than a memory. She is a Living Presence."

Charlotte Langbein was born in Gross Wantzeben, near Madgeburg, Prussia and came to Texas in 1853 with her parents.

Henry Voges Jr., son of Henry Sophie Ehlers Voges Sr., came to Texas in 1845 from Oberg Hildesheim, Hanover. Sophie Ehlers was born in Bettmar near Brunswick.

Charlotte Langbein and Henry Voges Jr. located on the east side of the Cibolo Creek in the Peiper Settlement. They purchased land and built a log house close to Cibolo Creek. It was the practice of the times to live close to a source of water. The water was hauled or carried from the creek for home and animal use. Later, a bigger house was built on a higher location. Henry Voges Jr. was active in civic development. He is listed as one of the first trustees of the Herrera School Community which was organized in 1888. Henry and Fritz Voges (a cousin) owned the first thrashing machine in the community. Henry owned the third cotton gin and also a mercantile business in the same community.

Regina and August Langbein Golden Wedding-1921

A PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD.

August Langbein, the most prominent citizen of Sisterdale, Texas, and a man well known not only in Kendall County but throughout this part of the state, passed away at his home on Monday, October 16, at 2 p. m. The decedent was in his seventy-fourth year and had been in ill health for quite a time. The services of physicians and specialists had been unsparingly employed in his behalf, but it became known some time ago that he was afflicted with an incurable malady, and to the faithful watchers at his bedside the end came as no surprise.

The funeral which took place from the family residence in Sisterdale on Tuesday afternoon was one of the very largest ever seen in this county, and was not only notable for its size but for the fact that so many distant places were represented in that immense gathering of faithful friends who stood grouped about the grave in the family cemetery at Sisterdale, where the body was laid to rest.

The Hermann Sons' lodge of Boerne, of which the decedent was a charter member, had charge of the funeral arrangements. And Cypress Camp, W. O. W., of Comfort also participated in the services, as the decedent had been an active member of that order for the past twenty-nine years. The Boerne Sister Lodge of Hermann Sons, out of respect to Mrs. August Langbein, who is one of its members, also attended the funeral in a body, and its members joined those of the two other lodges in participation in the obsequies.

The services opened with a most appropriate song by the Comfort Liedertafel, "Stund' schlaeft der Saenger," after which R. M. Flach, council commander of Cypress Camp, read the burial ritual of the Woodmen order and then eulogized the departed friend and sovereign. The Comfort Liedertafel then sang "Schlaf in Ruh" with a fine effect, after which Paul Holekamp, president of the Boerne Lodge, Sons of Hermann, delivered an obituary address in which he paid eloquent tribute to the decedent and reviewed his long and useful life. Mr. Holekamp's obituary included several poetic selections which were very fitting and added appreciably to the literary quality of the address.

The floral offerings were very beautiful and unusually numerous.

August Langbein was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Langbein of Grosswanzleben, Germany, and was born there on Jan. 4, 1849. Four years later his parents emigrated to this country with their children, and landed at Indianola, Texas, which was at that time a Gulf port of some importance. From there they traveled by ox team to New Braunfels where they settled and made their home until 1867, when the family moved to Sisterdale.

August went into business as a freighter, and in that capacity he covered a great deal of territory in this part of Texas, made friends wherever he went, and had many interesting experiences. Later he devoted his attention to farming. On July 4, 1871, he was married to Miss Regina Reimarz, and this union was blessed by one child, a daughter, who is now the wife of Hugo Schoenewolf.

In 1881 he bought from his father the site where he later built his home, a store and a dance hall, and as the years went by he gradually improved this property until it reached the state of completeness which it now possesses. He served as a postmaster of Sisterdale for twenty-three years and held the office of deputy sheriff for a considerable time.

August Langbein, while in every way a good American citizen, was fond of the old German customs and took pleasure and interest in promoting the local singing societies, shooting clubs, etc. He was a most hospitable man, and travelers were always made welcome at his home. Being of kindly disposition he made friends readily, and his sterling traits of character held these friends true to him through life. His admirable personality made him an outstanding figure in his community, and gave him a prominence there which was unrivaled. Now that he is gone, his unique position in the affection and respect of those who knew him cannot be filled.

He is survived by his widow and by his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Schoenewolf, also by his three grandchildren, Adolph, Anita and Carmen Schoenewolf. Four brothers and two sisters also survive him. They are Charles, Gustav, William and Robert, Mrs. Wm. Weidner and Mrs. Chas. Offer. All are well known residents of Sisterdale excepting Charles and Mrs. Weidner, who live at D'Hanis and Bulverde respectively. One sister, Mrs. Henry Voges of Bulverde, died several years ago.

William Scheel's To Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

On Monday, September 5, 1960, at Elsterdale, Texas, near Boerne and Comfort, in the ranch home of Anna and Robert Langbein, Bertha Langbein was married to William C. Scheel of Lockhart.

Following a honeymoon trip to San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Scheel went to their new home in Lockhart, and there they have lived for fifty years.

And they are celebrating their Fiftieth or Golden Wedding anniversary.

Bill Scheel, or "Pop" as he is called affectionately in Lockhart, will be 80 years of age in December. Mrs. Scheel will be 73.

Pop during the 20's was a cotton buyer for Karbach, Blebers, & Will, and for Will & Precht.

In 1929 he took over his duties with the Lockhart Fire Department.

Meanwhile, there being no program of instrumental music in the public schools, he gave music lessons to many a youngster in Lockhart, and organized and directed the Firemen's band, using young players as well as the more mature men recruited from the ranks of the firemen.

Pop was retired from the fire department in 1949, but he is still interested in the department's activities. He goes out on calls, and attends meetings and social functions.

Bertha has had two great interests, people and flowers. She loves talking to people, and becoming acquainted with them. And she has a "green-thumb", takes pride in producing beautiful flowers. Flowers for the yard, flowers for her friends living and dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheel have two sons: Weldon in Austin, teaching instrumental music in the public schools; and Alvin in Houston, associated with the Foley Bros. store.

There is one grandson, Billy, in Houston.

Golden Wedding -1959

Dedicated to:

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Langbein

1909 ----- 1959

Fifty lovely goldenrods
In your garden fair,
Look back on the span of years
And you can see them blooming there.

Among the thorns and thistles
They raise their stately head --
Planted fifty years ago
In a well-cultivated bed.

The rain and the sunshine,
With guiding on your part,
Have gone to build a garden fair
That's entwined in everyone's heart.

May your goldenrods keep blooming
A hundred years or more,
And at the end of that span of time,
You shall enter Heaven's door.

By Mrs. O. E. Bauer

Celebrate Golden Wedding

The Veterans Hall at Comfort was the scene of a very large and happy gathering Sunday afternoon, November 22nd when Mr. and Mrs. Herman Langbein were honored with a party by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hebert Langbein, to mark their 50th wedding anniversary. The cake was beautifully decorated in white with golden wedding bells and flowers. It was the center of attraction on the large serving table. In charge of the guests was the granddaughter, Mrs. Ralph Meckel, while the grandson, Larry Langbein, pinned on the gold favors as the guests entered.

Mrs. Nick Cuff of San Antonio and Mrs. Weldon Scheel of Austin served the wedding cake. Mrs. Harvey Lindner of San Antonio ladeled the punch and Mrs. Gus Doerfler poured the coffee. Mrs. Edwin Lindner, Mr. C. R. Blank, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marquardt, Laverne Langbein, and Ralph Meckel assisted in serving refreshments during the afternoon.

Many beautiful flowers and remembrances adorned the table where the honorees were seated.

The afternoon's entertainment opened with a prayer by Rev. Virgil Pecht. Mr. Otto Haber of San Antonio, a life long friend and school mate of the groom, gave a resume of their youthful life together. He also read a beautiful poem dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Langbein, by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Bower.

Charles Delgen of San Antonio, a close friend of the Lindner family, spoke highly of the brides many years of married life. The afternoon's entertainment came to a close with a beautiful and fitting song, "I Love You Truly", by niece and nephew, Weldon &

O God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy blast
And our eternal Home!

Beheath shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure:
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
For aye wilt be the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while troubles last
And our eternal Home!

Amen
